Your organisation may make the following statement on certificates, in publications and in publicity material:

“High Wire Charitable Trust has consent to assess from the New Zealand Qualifications Authority under Section 252 of the Education Act 1989 within the scope (indicate scope items above).”

and/or

“Kua whakamanahia a te High Wire Charitable Trust e Te Mana Tohu Mātauranga o Aotearoa i raro i te wāhanga 252 o te Ture Mātauranga 1989 ki te aromatawai ki ngā paerewa mō (indicate scope items above).”

Now that have consent to assess you will need to comply with Part 2 – Maintaining consent of Consent to Assess Against Standards on the Directory of Assessment Standards Rules 2011 to maintain your consent.

Two electronic files can be downloaded from the NZQA website to update your computer system. These are:

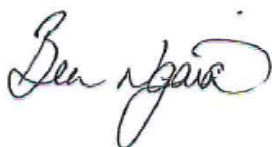

- Units.txt – this provides a file of all unit standards that can be read in to your system
- Consents.txt – this file provides the unit standards that your organisation has current consent to assess.

To keep consent to assess your organisation needs to maintain or improve the policies and procedures you have documented and demonstrated to NZQA. Please advise NZQA immediately if there are significant changes to these policies and procedures.

The effectiveness of your assessment against standards must be reviewed as part of your self-assessment.

Please contact Neville Wanoa – Evaluator, phone 04 463 4283, email neville.wanoa@nzqa.govt.nz if you have any queries.
